

RPL Application – NALP Units

NALP recognises a number of qualifications for exemption purposes. If you have completed a qualification listed in the Exemptions table in our Recognition of Prior Learning Policy, you should use this form to apply for exemption. Students who have achieved a Qualifying Law Degree (designated as qualifying by the SRA) must have done so within the last 7 years. Details of fees required are shown in the Exemptions table.

NALP operates an equality and diversity policy and welcomes applications on the basis of comparable qualifications from recognised institutions which satisfy the NALP criteria.

Please complete all sections of this application form and ensure you enclose the supporting documents required with your application. Incomplete applications will be returned.
